STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

Malone ME Church was built in 1890. The congregation dates from 1882. This church was originally supported by blacks engaged in watering. A packing plant was active at Madison (oysters, crabmeat, etc.) for over 100 years. The seafood industry is still vital to this waterfront town. There are two white Methodist churches in Madison (one abandoned), and the Malone congregation grew out of the black membership of these churches after the Civil War.
